Careers Insight

If you have creative flair, style and a desire to help people feel relaxed and good about themselves, then you might want to consider a career in health and beauty...

Hairdressing

Part of the fast-moving fashion industry, this covers cutting, styling and colouring all types of hair. Hairdressers begin by training in salons and helping customers improve their look.

Earnings: Training salaries start around £10,000, but can increase to around £16,000 with a qualification and experience.

Beauty therapy

This covers treatments and services that enhance a client's appearance and well-being. It can include anything from simple facials to treatments that aid relaxation and help relieve stress.

Earnings: £12,000 to £17,000 (with experience) a year.

Spa therapy

Spa tourism in England is worth £1.4bn a year and is one of the fastest growing industries. Treatments may include Indian head massage, aromatherapy, holistic treatments and all aspects of heat and wet treatments (like hydrotherapy, sauna and steam).

Earnings: £12,000 – £14,000 a year.

Nail services

There are roughly 18,000 businesses that employ nail technicians in the UK. Their job is to improve the appearance and condition of the skin and nails on hands and feet.

Earnings: £10,000 to £15,000 a year.
