

Year 9 Religious Studies

What have students at St. Crispin's been taught to understand and be able to do?

Core Knowledge	Core Skills
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Introduction to Philosophy and Ethics.• Ethical issues surrounding crime and punishment.• Religious and non religious responses to Crime and Punishment.• Ethical issues surrounding war and peace.• Religious and non religious responses to war and peace.• Philosophical questions surrounding life after death.• Religion and non religious responses to life after death.• Beliefs in the modern world: questions and clashes arising from an increasing multi faith / no faith society. Including: medical ethics and relationships.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identifying and explaining key religious and non religious beliefs and practices.• Using key, subject specific terminology• Using sources of wisdom to support religious beliefs.• Recognising common and divergent views within religions.• Forming and structuring arguments.• Develop literacy and oracy skills.

How has learning been assessed?

- In class recap quizzes and retrieval activities.
- Multiple choice quizzes.
- End of unit assessments—multiple choice questions and written answers.

What is coming up in the following year?

GCSE Religious Studies: Christian beliefs and teachings; relationships and families; Christian practices; religion, peace and conflict; Islamic beliefs and practices.